

103. The supervisor of each road district is hereby authorized to hire horses, wagons, carts and plows, and to employ not less than six able-bodied men hands to work on the repairs of the public roads and bridges in his district, and he is hereby required to commence the ordinary repairs of said public roads and bridges in the month of May, and to complete the same by the first day of September, in each and every year.

Ibid. s. 3.
May employ labor.

Within what time repairs to be made.

104. Each of the said supervisors is hereby required to keep an accurate account of the number of days he was engaged on the repairs of said roads and bridges in his road district as supervisor, the number of hands worked each day, and the number of days labor performed by each hand, the number of horses, wagons, carts and plows used, and the number of days they were in use, and report the same under oath to the county commissioners.

Ibid. s. 4.
Account, how to be kept.

105. If any supervisor appointed under the provisions of this act shall render to the county commissioners a false statement of account, or shall be guilty of wilful neglect of duty, he shall be liable to punishment and indictment by the grand jury, and if convicted in the circuit court for said county, shall be fined any sum in the discretion of the court not exceeding fifty dollars for each offence.

Ibid. s. 5.
Penalty for false account, &c.

106. The county commissioners are hereby authorized to purchase for the use of the county road scoops, hoes, shovels and picks, for the purpose of repairing said roads and bridges, to be distributed with the several supervisors, who shall take care of them and pass them to their successors when called for.

Ibid. s. 6.
Commissioners may purchase tools.

107. The county commissioners for each election district shall have general supervision over the several public roads and bridges in his district, and it shall be his duty to see that they are kept in good repair, and he is hereby empowered to suspend any road supervisor in his district for neglect of duty, and in case of such suspension, he shall report the same to the board of commissioners, who may dismiss such offender.

Ibid. s. 7.
Duty of county commissioners.